

5/61
Die Sabbati 2^o Martii, 1727.

H E House (according to Order) proceeded to take into Consideration the Standing Order of this House of the 26th of January, 1710. in relation to the entring into Recognizances on Appeals, in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds to Her then Majesty, for the payment of Costs given upon the dismission of such Appeals; and the said Standing Order being read, It is this Day Ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, That the Penalty to be contained in such Recognizances for the future, shall be the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Upon Report from the Committee of the whole House, appointed to take into Consideration Matters relating to the Proceedings on Appeals and Writs of Error: It is Ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, That at the Hearing of Causes for the future, One of the Council for the Appellants shall open the Cause, then the Evidence on their Side shall be read; which done, the other Council for the Appellants may make Observations on the Evidence: Then One of the Council for the Respondents shall be heard, and the Evidence on their Side to be read; after which, the other Council for the Respondents shall be heard, and One Council only for the Appellants to reply.

Die Lunæ 4^o Martii, 1727.

¹
O Ordered and Declared, That the Two Orders above mentioned, be Standing Orders of this House, and entred on the Roll, and forthwith Printed and Published, and affixed on the Doors of this House, and Westminster Hall.

London printed by John Baskett 1727

W^m Cowper,
Cler' Parliamentor'